2009 World Women's Championships: Bulletin 3

Dear WTBA Federations,

This cover letter is designed to help you with important dates that are approaching soon along with the final schedule, country participant list and athlete list for the WWC 2009.

The official Web site that will have all the up to date information pertaining the championships is www.2009WWC.com Please use this valuable tool for continued updates past this third bulletin.

Entry and Hotel forms were due on May 20. If you have not received a confirmation email from the tournament registration committee, please email Kristin.Warzinski@Bowl.com to confirm your entry forms were processed. The hotel form should be emailed to the registration committee and to Sunset Station directly at Kaleina.Cope@Stationcasinos.com Please remember the hotel rates include breakfast buffet, internet access, resort fee and all taxes.

Form D (Arrival information) and Form E (Official Delegation) were due June 12. These forms are vital to ensure your country delegates are pickup at the Las Vegas airport. (If you are connecting within the USA before arriving to Las Vegas please make sure you put the airline's full name and flight number). The delegation information will be uploaded to the WWC 2009 so that you can check the spelling and correctness of participants and athletes.

I look forward to seeing everyone in Las Vegas.

Best regards,

David Garber

4. Facilities / Services

2009wwc.com

2009wwc.com – the official Web site of the 2009 World Women's Championships – has been launched. This is the ultimate resource for event information, including:

- News
- Results
- Schedule of Events
- Participants
- Bulletins
- Event History
- Travel Tips
- Hotel Information
- Area Restaurants
- Shuttle Schedule
- Las Vegas Attractions
- Contact Information

Press Room

Credentialed press will have access to a working media room, with space up to 25 people. Free high-speed wireless internet will be available and the room will feature printed standing sheets as well as complimentary beverages. Lucas Wiseman, Press Director, will oversee the Press Room. Please remember, the Press Room is for working press only. Players, coaches and team managers are not permitted to use the press facilities unless they are working to provide updates to press in their home countries.

Results

Teams, federations and press will be provided with standings after each game as well as complete standings after each squad. Standings will be available on a scoreboard within the bowling center for spectators. In addition, results will be available on 2009wwc.com.

Shuttles (Airport, Hotels, Bowling Center)

All delegations will be met at Las Vegas International Airport upon arrival and will be transported to the hotel. Federations must provide flight arrival times to Pat Winkels, Registration Manager, to ensure prompt pick-up. Registration Manager also will arrange transportation for departure.

Shuttle bus service between the official hotel and the bowling center also will be provided to players, coaches, officials, presidium members and supporters. Shuttle bus schedule will be available in future bulletins and also posted on 2009wwc.com.

Contact your nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate for more information: <http://www.usembassy.gov>

7. Other tournaments

There are several other opportunities for participants, coaches, team managers and supporters who attend the World Women's Championships to compete in tournaments in the United States. Two of these tournaments happen in Las Vegas at the beginning and at the end of the World Women's Championships. Below are details on each event.

Event	U.S. Women's Open, a United States Bowling Congress event
Dates	Aug. 3-9
Location	Sunset Station Hotel and Casino's Strike Zone Bowling Center
Entry fee	$300 prior to July 10; $350 after July 10
Eligibility	Open to any female bowler. All participants must be USBC members ($36 payable on site).
Prize fund	$150,000 U.S. dollars ($25,000 US for the winner)
Format	Official practice will be held on Aug. 3. Participants bowl three eight-game qualifying blocks over three days (Aug. 4-6). The field is cut to the top 25 percent, who bowl 16 additional games on the fourth day (Aug. 7). The top 12 players advance to the televised quarterfinals, semifinals and final, held over two days (Aug. 8-9). Departures take place Aug. 10.
About the event	The U.S. Women's Open is one of the most prestigious bowling events for women in the United States. Many of the top amateur and former professional stars in women's bowling will compete in the event. Last year, several foreign bowlers competed, including Malaysia's Shalin Zulkifli, who finished tied for third.
How to enter	An entry form will be available on bowl.com soon and a link to the entry form will be included in the next bulletin.
